Income-tax:

As per Income tax act when an assessee files the return he should claim the TDS for which he has TDS certificate and credit is available in the form 26 AS. In our case Mrs. Beena P. Vaghela has claimed the TDS in the return based on the TDS certificate but it has not been shown in form 26 AS so Department has not given the credit. But on production of form 26 as before the concerned Assessment officer, TDS credit can be availed and demand can be nullified.

Particulars Regarding Income Matters
Name	Assessment Year	Demand as per Income Tax	TDS claimed	TDS considered	TDS not considered	Reasons	solution
B P Vaghela & Co.	2011-12	9020	12,800	10,000	2,800	TDS mismatch in 26AS	Original TDS certificates will be provided to IT Dept. So this demand would be nullified.
	2013-14	32860	32,650	-	32,650

VAT:

Generally, for claiming Vat Input Tax Credit, online verification of credit is utilized by the department. but when there is a mismatch in credit then the assessee is required to produce the proof of original tax invoices and then sometimes department sends the letters for manual cross verification to the corresponding office and if the Assessing Officer is satisfied then even on verification of original documents he may allow the credit of Input Tax Credit to assessee. There are number of judgements available supporting the same. It is carried out while assessment proceeding.
